

University of Rome Roma “Tor Vergata”

INFORMATION SHEET ABOUT THE AFRICAN TRAINING ON GALENIC LABORATORY

This training course is organised by the Department of Biology (EU STARBIOS2 Project) and EUROBIOPARK of the University of Rome Tor Vergata to increase the knowledge and the technical capacity in the preparation of pharmaceutical galenic products at the level of african pharmacystes.

The industrial partners are:

- FARMALABOR (www.farmalabor.it), a well know italian company which distribute pharmaceutical active principes, including natural extracts and active pharmaceutical ingredients. A specific galenic laboratory will be set up for this occasion by FARMALABOR at the Course of Pharmacy, Univeristy of Rome Tor Vergata.
- FARMACAP (www.farmacap.eu) is the company participated by the town of Rome for the product and services in the pharmaceutical sectors, with more 50 pharmacies located in different part of Rome.

The timing and contents of the Training Course are the following:

- Monday 12 Sept: Installation, use and maintenance of distinct equipments;
- Tuesday 13 Sept: Technologies in Galenic Formulations;
- Wedensday 14 Sept: Examples of Galenic formulations (capsule, pill, tablet) ;
- Tuesday 15: Natural products, Safety, Certification and Regulatory issues (including Intellectual Proprety and Open Aceso rights) in Europe and Africa.

Responsible of the Training Course:

- Italy: Prof. Vittorio Colizzi, Course of Pharmacy, University of Rome Tor Vergata.
- Africa: Dr. Nathalie Nzekwa, Medical Plus, Douala, Cameroon

Faculty of the Training Course:

- Prof. Vittorio Colizzi, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
- Prof. Carla Montesano, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
- Dr. Antonella Minutolo, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
- Dr. Marina Podestà, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
- Prof. Kenneth Yongaby, Catholic University of Bamenda, Cameroon (Pharmacy Course);
- Dr. Federico Crotti, Farmacap (Roma);
- Mr. Massimo Conti, Farmalabor (Milano);
- Dr.ssa Irene Pantanetti, Arpa-Cosmetics, Urbisaglia (Mc);

University of Rome Roma “Tor Vergata”

- Dr. Riccardo Rascione, Arpa Cosmetics, Urbisaglia (Mc);
- Dr. Roberto Parisi, AlmaPhyto, San Marino.

Date of the Training Course: 12 – 16 September 2016, hours 09-17.

Location:

Laboratory of Immunology and Pathology, Department of Biology, Faculty of Pharmacy, University of Rome Tor Vergata.

Registration: each participant needs to be registered by sending a letter of intent specifying their interest, the date of arrival and the date of their departure. Each participant will provide his flight ticket, while the accommodation and leaving expenses will be provided by the University of Rome Tor Vergata (Starbios2 Programme). A Certification of Participation will be granted to each participant.

The following 13 participants have been selected by the following institutions to be trained:

1. Dr. Bertrand Sagnia, CIRCB, Yaoundé, Cameroon
2. M.me Maximilienne Saague Tenefo, University of Cameroon;
3. Mr. Franks Astrid Nzekoue Kamgang, University of Cameroon;
4. Mr. Quentin Ghislain Sontia Fozing, University of Cameroon;
5. Mr. Maurice Kenzo, Université de Dschang;
6. Mr. Jacques Djadjing, Infermerie de la Présidence;
7. Dr. Murielle Tsafack, Palagahe, Douala, Cameroon;
8. Dr. Alain Tenoh, ProHerbeCare, Cameroon;
9. Mr. Rick Nguedia, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
10. Mr. Sali Ben Bechir, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
11. Mr. Rodrigue Biguioh, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
12. Dr. Arianna Guidi, University of Rome Tor Vergata;
13. Mr. Mario Verdiglioni, Farmacia Europea Vigilante, Catanzaro.

Contact:

Prof. Vittorio Colizzi, MD, PhD,
University of Rome Tor Vergata, Course of Pharmacology
Department of Biology, Laboratory of Immunology & Pathology,
Phone: office: +39-72594237, mobile +39-3478312155. E-mail: colizzi@uniroma2.it

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 709517